

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. All guests are expected to arrive at the time listed in the specific event. We encourage all audience members to show respect and appreciation to the artists.
2. Please silence your phone during the performance. Photos and video will NOT be allowed as this will interfere with your experience of the show. Leave that up to us, our team will be capturing all the amazing moments while you enjoy the concert.
3. All Jazz Exchange shows will be conducted as concert settings, we expect our audience to give their full attention to the performance. The Jazz Exchange does not sell alcohol at any of their shows. Some of our events may take place at public venues (restaurants, bars, coffee shops etc..) that sell alcohol as well as BYOB events that will be listed. We ask all audience members to drink responsibly.
4. Once you attend one of our shows you become part of The Jazz Exchange community so we ask you to act responsibly as the shows take place in different settings such as private houses, living rooms, offices, and business.
5. The Jazz Exchange is an inclusive, opened minded, respectful community and we ask you that as a member of the audience you act accordingly towards everyone.
6. By attending this event, you understand your image may be captured and you grant permission to the Jazz Exchange, its licensees, and photographers/videographers to use any such images as they deem appropriate.
7. The Jazz Exchange reserves the right to ask anyone to leave if you choose not to abide by any of the rules listed above.
8. You assume all risks incidental to the event for which a ticket or invitation is issued, whether before, during or after the performance, and you waive any claims for personal injury or death against the Jazz Exchange, its management, officers, directors, owners, employees or agents on behalf of yourself, your guest(s) and any accompanying minor.
